

1. PREPARE the Call of the Heart

Reading and Reflection, Listening and Listening – read paragraph after paragraph in a contemplative fashion. The Bible then will reveal a new meaning friendship between individuals as well as a new meaning of friendship that will guide the church's mission.

- Stop reading, allow a moment of silent listening. Allow
- Individuals time to reflect on the paragraph with reflection.
- Share what you have read (10-15 min).
- Read the Bible with the reading.
- Individuals time to reflect on the new meaning of friendship.

"The heart of the church is not made of congregations because the paper" (John 1:1-10:10).
