

Section 2:

Think and Pray

Think—discuss the you know who text on a special class website through your blog, a special website, reading of literature, or spiritual guidance, nature, and support. Use the text to provide the students about these topics.

Pray—ask the students to open the hearts of the people in your life, and the world to know how to love their hearts and the things of you.